

VACANCY NOTICE

ST LUCIA SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Post: Tutor in the Department of Wind Studies.

Applications are invited from suitably qualified persons for appointment to the full-time or Part-time post in the Department of Piano Studies, commencing September 2011. The appointment for full-time tutors would be for three years in the first instance.

Qualifications:

A Bachelor's Degree from a recognised University in Music Education with all types of wind instruments for full-time tutors and a lower level education for part-time tutors. Relevant teaching experience for at least three years is required. The ability to teach both classical and pop/jazz styles would be an asset, as would be the ability to also teach general musicianship.

Duties:

These would include:

- (1) Teaching mainly woodwinds (flute, clarinet, alto and tenor saxophones) and some brass (trumpet and trombone) etc to part-time students of all ages from beginners to advanced levels, with some practical examination work for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (ABRSM), UK.
- (2) Developing ensemble work within the Wind Studies Department.
- (3) Coaching the wind section of the school's small community orchestra and sharing the conducting of this ensemble.
- (4) Preparing students for and assisting with the organising of student concerts.
- (5) Performing as soloist/accompanist in staff recitals and student concerts.
- (6) Assisting with at least one of the school's main ensembles: Community Choir, Community Orchestra, School ensemble or Jazz Ensemble.
- (7) Contributing in other areas of the applicant's special interest and the department's needs.

Salary:

Based upon applicant's qualifications and experience.

Video submission:

Short listed applicants from outside St Lucia will be required to submit a video of their teaching and playing.

Persons interested in applying are asked to submit their resume as soon as possible to:
